MISS DOROTHE HEIBERG.

The first of this season's buds, who is to be presented to society today.

and Mrs. William Boyce Thompson, Mrs. Henry Allen Cooper, Mrs. Arthur Buxton, Miss Jessie Tred-

well, Roger Tredwell, Mrs. Law rence Townsend, but why go on? Apparently everybody worth know-

Mrs. Harding at Mt. Alto.

Mrs. Harding motored to Walter

Reed Hospital today to pay her Thanksgiving visit to the wounded soldiers. She was accompanied by her

Yesterday Mrs. Harding and Miss Harlan visited the soldiers at Mt

Alto Hospital, stopping on their way back to the White House at Pierce

Mill, the Girl Scout tea house in Rock

Dinners Tonight.

The Secretary of State and Mrs.

Hughes will give tonight the last of their series of dinners for the conference delegates. Senator Carlo

Schanzer, chief of the Italian delegation, will also entertain at dinner

nis guests being asked to meet Pre mier Briand, the head of the French delegation, who has delayed his de parture for New York until tomorrow in order to be present. Another important dinner will be given by the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs.

Hoover in honor of Admiral Baron

Kato and Ambassador Shidehara, of

The Secretary of War, John W.

Weeks, was host at luncheon at the Shoreham today in honor of the foreign military delegates attending the

His guests included the Secretar

of State, Charles Evans Hughes; H

E. Carlo Schanzer, Dr. Sao-Ke Al

fred Sze, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge

P. Fletcher; the Assistant Secretary of War, J. M. Wainright; George Sutherland, General Perghing, Ad-miral W. L. Rodgers, Major General Harbord, Major General Squier, Maj. Gen. C. C. Williams, Brig. Gen. Wil-lam Mitchell, Brig. Gen. A. A. Fries.

liam Mitchell, Brig. Gen. A. A. Fries, Col. John McA. Palmer, Col. Briant H. Wells. Lieut. Col. S. Heintzelman, eneral the Earl of Cavan, Col. W

H. Bartholomew, Air Vice Marshill J. F. A. Higgins, Group Captain J. A. Chamier, Coionel Du Roure, Colonel Requin, H. E. Lieutenant

he Undersecretary of State, Henry

the Japanese delegation.

ing in Washington was there.

secretary, Miss Laura Harlan.

Creek Park, for tea

DYED HER WRAP, SKIRT, SWEATER,

Every "Diamond Dyes" package Club, will speak on "Newspapers and Newspaper men." and Dr. Philip faded garment or drapery a new rich Jaisohn, of Korea, will discuss "The faded garment or drapery a new rich color that will not streak, spot, fade or run. Perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of garet Burns. Miss Teresa Connelly,

Cuticura Soap -Imparts -The Velvet Touch

Pep-phos is a scientifically pre-pared tonic that tones up the entire system, develops the appetite strengthens and invigorates.

Pep-phos sells at $1.50 per bottle at all Peoples Drug Stores.

FOREIGN WRITERS GUESTS OF SALON AND ARTS SOCIETY

The guests of honor at the Tranksgiving Day celebration of the Washington Salon and United Arts Society at the Playhouse, 1814 N street, to-AND DRAPERIES morrow night will be the foreign sewspaper representatives attending the conference on limitation of armaments and a number of the members of the conference. Avery C. Marks, ir., president of the National Press millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything!—Advertiement.

who will be assisted by Miss Margaret Burns, Miss Teresa Connelly, Miss Virginia M. Ennen, Miss Kathryn Weckel, Miss Rosebud Almand, Miss Alice Hogan, Miss Vera Kaufman, Miss Alice Atchison, Miss Helen Grove Weir, and Miss Loreine Miss Grace Weir, and Miss Loreine

> Mrs. F. X. A. Eble will render a group of soprano solos, with Warren T. Johnson at the piano, Mrs. Eble being the soloist at the Northminster Presbyterian Church; Miss Marjorie Fraser Webster will appear in pas de seul and dance interpretations, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Smitherman; piano solo selec-tions by Miss Alice Delesiyne Taylor, of the Fabian School of Music; Ha-walian songs and music by the Misses Edith and Grace McDowell, and a group of violin solos by Master Isaac Minovich, the ten-year-old prodigy, with Miss Dora Minovich at the piano. Rudolphe de Zapp, president of the society, will make the presen-tation. There will be dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, o Chicago, entertained a party of twelve at dinner last evening at the Willard.

WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

The National Daily

President Harding has recently put back upon the map—will extend its welcome to the delegates to the arms conference tonight with a reception in the beautiful National Museum Building, which will be the largest function of a crowded sea-son, one of the most brilliant and perhaps the most typically Amer-

Nearly 5,000 guests have ben invited and it is not expected that there all be many absentees. The guests will be greeted by Commis-sioner and Mrs. Cuno Rudolph, Commisioner and Mrs. James F. Oyster and Col. Charles Keller, Engineer Commission, and Mrs. Keller. Capt. Hayne Ellis, U. N. S., will make the presentations to Charles J. Bell, chairman of the cizitens committee on arrangements, and 'he in turn will introduce them to the members of the receiving line.

here will be music by the Marine Band and a buffet supper will be served during the evening. The auditorium of the museum where the reception will be held, has been decorated with cut flowers and flags of the nations participating in

AT the British embassy last evening a brilliant reception was held following the dinner which the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes gave for the Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge and the chiefs of the British and American conference delegations.

Between 1,000 and 2,000 guests came together for the larger func-tion, the assemblage being made up of the various coteries of Washington's rather cosmopolitan society, augmented by many of the foreign visitors whose presence here adds such a keen element of interest to all official gatherings.

Men were in the majority in the company, which was seated about a table gay with glowing yellow chrysanthemums and decked with the famous British embassy plate. The guests for dinner were: Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, Prince Tokugawa, M. Briand, Sen-ator Schanzer, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator and Mrs. Oscar W. Underwood, Elihu Root, the Rt. Hon. Arthur Balfour, Lord Lee of Fareham and Lady Lee, Sir Robert and Lady Borden, Senator Pearce, Sir John Salmond, Mr. Sastri, ad-miral of the fleet, Earl Beatty; the Secretay of the Treasury, Andrew W. Mellon; the Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty; the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Albert B. Fall, the Secretary of Labor and Mrs. John W. Davis, the Postmaster General. Will Hayes; the Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Henry P. Fletcher, Rt. Hon. John Jordan, Sir H. Llewelyn Smith, Admiral and Mrs. Coontz, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Andrea W. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs.

Hankey, Lady Donegal, Lord Rid-dell, Lady Annesley, Air Vice Mar-shal Higgins, Sir Arthur Willert and

THE portrait of Queen Victoria, which occupies a place of honor on the landing of the great stairway, smiled down upon an effective picture, the scarlet coats of the British officers present striking a brilliant color note even in an assemblage where all the women were beautifully gowned and half the men were in uniform.

By the doorway a tall sergeant of dragoons, a picturesque figure in scarlet uniform and towering busby, stood at attention all evening. Clusters of palms and chrys-anthemums were used in the hallway and the long double drawing rooms, where the Ambassador and Lady Geddes received. The beautifully proportioned ballroom was guiltless of decorations save for the portraits of King George and Queen Mary looking down from

In the receiving line with the Ambassador and Lady Geddes were Mr. Balfour, Lord Lee of Fareham and Lady Lee. A member of the embassy staff made the presentations and the guests as they ar-rived were marshalled into line by the young attaches, many of them in uniform, who were grouped in the East drawing room. Lady Geddes wore a lovely gown of orchid tinted velvet gracefully draped and made with an impiecement of silver cloth in the front of the bodice. She had diamonds in her hair and about her throat. Lady Lee's costume was of cloth of gold and gold colored tulle and she wore a diamond tiara and a magnificent necklace of diamonds and rubies.

IN the ballroom or the dining room, where supper was served from a buffet table lighted by tapers in tall candelabra, interesting groups assembled about the various delugates, M. Briand and Lord Beatty in animated conversation, Mr. Sastri with his snowy turban, Dr. Koo and his picturesque wife, her Oriental beauty enhanced by her chic Occidental dress, are some of the figures which stand out in looking back upon the effective scene. Some particularly handsome gowns were worn. Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry presenting perhaps the loveliest picture in an assemblage of lovely women. Her gown was of cloth of silver—a new weave as soft as velvet the drapery being so arranged as to show the orchid tinted reverse side, and from her shoulders being strings of pearls. She wore orchid hose and silver slippers and on leaving donned a chinchilla wrap which was the envy of all observers

Senator and Mrs. Gerry were with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Townsend, and Mr. Brun, Minister of Denmark. Mrs. Townsend's gown was of black and gold brocade and she wore pearls and diamonds. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt was in white and silver, all aglitter with sequins and wearing splendid diamonds. Mrs. J. Borden Harriman was strikingly handsome in a green velvet gown, of gold lace placed low on the hips to simulate a girdle. The most striking feature of her costume was the flowing medieval sleeves of velvet, which were detached from the gown and hung from a band of gold lace encircling the arm just above

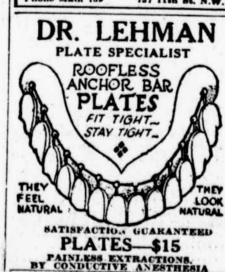

Mrs. R. Leslie Craigie, wife of the secretary of the British embassy, had on a charming gown of rose pink_velvet, made en train, draped and trimmed with strings of pearls. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, in white velvet and wearing diamonds, and Mrs. John F. Wilkins, wearing a white gown garnished with long jet fringe, were both notably smart.

A MONG the guests one noted the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, the Spanish Ambassa-dor and Mme. Riano, the Peruvian Ambassador and Mme. Pezet, the Minister of Sweden and Mme. Wallenberg, with Miss Wallenberg, and many of the lesser lights of the diplomatic world, among them the entire staff of the British em-

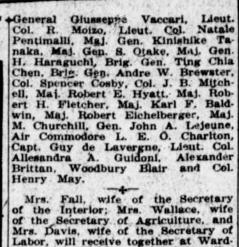

Others present were Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney, General Per-shing, Senator and Mrs. Henry W. Keyes, Senator and Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Senator and Mrs. Harry New, Mrs. Mina Van Winkle, Miss Betty Poe, Mrs. Grafton Minot, Miss Mildred Bromwell, just back from Europe, Mr. and Mrs. Waddy B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, Con-gressman and Mrs. Julius Kahn, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Col and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Congressman and Mrs. Frederick Hicks, Mr.

UMBRELLAS Come here and select your Christ-mas Umbrellas. A wonderful selection at much more reasonable prices than elsewhere.

Quality Umbrella Shop

PAINLESS EXTRACTIONS.
Y CONDUCTIVE ANESTHESIA
Removable Bridgework Inserted
Without Grinding Your Teeth. Plates Repaired While You Walt $1.50 307 7th St. N. W., Opp. Saks of the Secretary of Agriculture, and Mrs. Davis, wife of the Secretary of Labor, will receive together at Wardman Park Hotel on Wednesday, December 7, the first afternoon upon which the ladies of the Cabinet will

The Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Davis will entertain informally at dinner tomorrow. They will have with them about ten guests. Secretary and Mrs. Davis are going up to New York on Friday to attend the Army and Navy game on Saturday.

Miss Ruth Wallace will come to Washington from Baltimore today to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Wallace. Miss Wallace will return to Goucher College to resume her studies Sunday evening.

Miss Ledyard Weds.

The marriage of Miss Murray Led-yard to J. H. Ten Eyck Burr took lace quietly today at the home of the oride at 2011 N street. The ceremony was performed at noon by Rev. Father John K. Cartwright in the presence of a small company of the members of the two families. Mr. Burr and his bride left immediately afterward for a wedding trip and will pend the winter in Florida Mrs. Robert S. Hubbard, of Casanova, N. Y., was the matron of honor and Mrs. Walter Stephens Turpin was he bridesmaid. Robert S. Hubbard was the best

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the former Secretary of the Navy, is spending a short time in Washington with her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Worth Ragley, and her sisters, the Misses Bagley. They are at the Dupont. Mr. Daniels at present is in the

Miss Heiberg First "Deb." The first of this season's debutantes

o make her bow to Washington society is Miss Dorethe Helberg, daugher of Mrs. E. R. Heiberg, who will be presented this afternoon at a tea at he Washington club. Miss Heiberg is the granddaughter of Harrison Dodge, superintendent of Mt. Vernon, and Mrs. Dodge. Her mother, Mrs. Helberg, was Miss Anna H. Dodge before her marriage to Major Elvin R. Heiberg. Major Heiberg, it will be remembered, was killed during he war while military attache at Both the Dodges and Heibergs, hough old Georgetown families ving at present at Edgemoor, Md. liss Heiberg was abroad during the with Mrs. I. T. Mans and her daughr. Miss Alice Mann, a debutante of Miss Heiberg is wearing this after-noon a simple little frock of white hiffon velvet, made on straight lines, rith a girdle of pearls.

Receiving with her will be a group of her sister buds, including Miss Alice Mann, Miss Gladys Chapman

Smith, Miss Nancy Hoyt, Miss Sidney (Continued on Page 15.)

Gouraud's (Pink) Oriental Cream we have placed your desire within your reach. It renders to your cheeks a delicate, refined Rose-Tint, so natural and subtle in effect that the use of a Tollet Preparation cannot be detected. All of the qualities of Gouraud's Oriental Cream have been retained in our new product. That soft, velvety skin, its sothing and antiseptic effect are but a few of the many virtues it renders to your skin and complexion. Try it to-day and see the new door to Beauty it opens. Try These Three Gourand's A DECAUMPERSON Preparations

Rose Tinted

Cheeks

the NEW YORK'S CLUB-LIKE HOTEL hermitage

A strictly business-like institution with an atmosphere pleasing to men and women Rates - Single $3 to $5 20

SPECIAL

Thanksgiving Dinner 11:30 A. M. to 9 P. M.

AT.O. DANCING 6 P. M. to 12 P. M.

Carpe Diem Salon

16th and V Streets N. W.

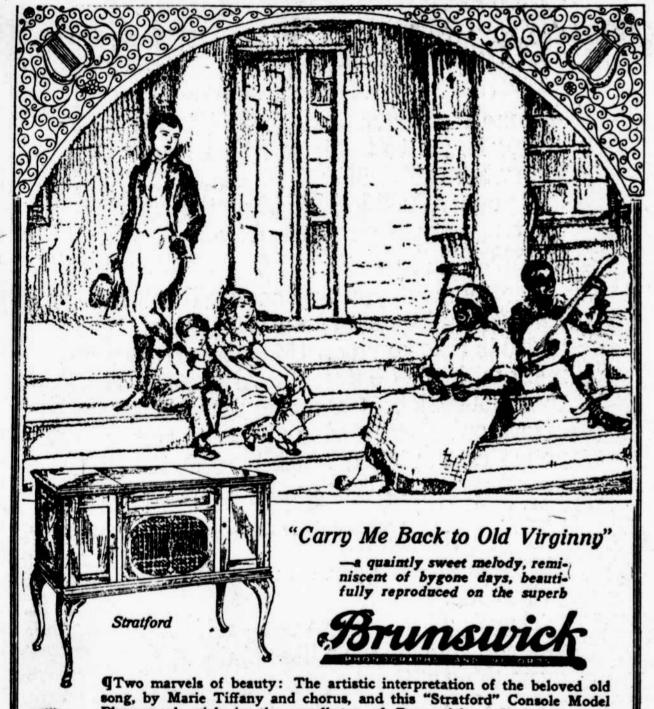

The PALAIS ROYAL

11th and G Sts .- The Shopping Center-A. Lisner, Prop.

Store Closed All Day Thursday, Thanksgiving Day

Hundreds of the "last minute" Thanksgiving needs can be bought here today at attractive savings-Shop early.

Phonograph, rich in the excellence of Brunswick craftsmanship and mechanical invention.

Priced $65 to $350. BRUNSWICK-BALKE-COLLENDER CO. CHICAGO, ILL.

Complete Stock Marie Tiffany Records Featuring Three Favorites.

BIG STOCK BRUNSWICK PHONOGRAPHS FEATURING PERIOD MODELS

Carry Me Back to Old Virginny. 10 1.00

THE GIBSON CO., Inc., 917 G St. N. W.